Killing Just as Many in Proportion, Asserts Head of Medical Association at Atlantic City Meeting

Amendment to Be Urged

Present Law Increases Vice and Is Making Nation of Drug Users, He Declares

Wallace Fritz, of Philadelphia, president of the Allied Medical Associations of America, speaking here to-day before the opening session of the tenth tion, said that the enforcement of the prohibition law had cost more lives, in proportion to the number of men em ployed by the government, than the fered against prohibition

William McGowan, keeper of a saloon at 452 Atlantic Avenue, Brooklyn, was arraigned in Flatbush Court yesterday on a charge of violating the Mullan-Gage law. He had a glass of whisky on his bar, it was charged. He waived examination and was held for the grand jury in $500 bail. McGowan took a $1,000 bill from a large roll.

"We're not a bank; we can't change that." said James Regan, court clerk. "Well, I'm sorry; it is the smallest I have," replied McGowan. To prove this statement he showed his roll which consisted of several $1,000 bills. The magistrate increased his bail to $1,000.

A good bill for the "dog days" is offered this week at Keith's Palace, for all the numbers are sneppy, there is plenty of clever nonsense, the music acts are topnotchers and there are no tabloid dramas to weigh down the spirit and add heaviness to the atmosphere. The chief event of the performance, of course, is the return of Florence Moore to the vandeville fold, and the welcome extended yesterday to the popular star was vociferous enough to satisfy even so vociferous a lady as herself.

Miss Moore has a manner and style peculiarly adapted to the music hall; she is undeniably funny and herbreezy, boisterous way of entertaining wins her audience from the start.

John Steel, who remains over for another week, continues to add to his popularity. He is fortunate in having Jerry Jarnigan as his acompanist. The Six Brown Brothers, from "Tip Top" and other Fred Stone shows, is the best item of the excellent bill.

BATTEN

J. Stern Sails for France J. Stern, president of the Three Se. Line and Societie Affreteurs Reun sailed for Paris on the steamship Paris after a most successful trip here. Stern completed arrangements for and coal bunkering stations.

An ambassador made a speech and the newspapers bristled with letters from readers. Some defended him. Others wanted him recalled.

and Admirals Talk

An admiral made a speech and the cables sizzled; front pages had a new sensation; the caricaturists got busy; and every editorial page had comments to make.

Why all this excitement about two speeches?

Because Public Opinion was involved, and Public Opinion is the most powerful thing in politics and perhaps the most powerful thing in civilization.

What others are made to think of us is Public Opinion. What others believe we think of them is Public Opinion.

The business man who sees the power and strength of Public Opinion and courts a favorable opinion for the goods he sells is called an advertiser.

Public Opinion is just as powerful a factor in selling as it is in politics or social ethics.

Once a month, or more frequently, we issue a publication called Batten's Wedge. Each issue is devoted to a single editorial on some phase of business. If you are a business executive and would like to receive copies, write us.
